Chairmen C. N. D. Meet at Library Tomorrow

Very important is to be the meeting of Rock Island county chairmen and officers of the Women's committee, C. N. D., Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in Rock Island public library. Routine business will be transacted and reports will be given of the response of the women to the request to buy Liberty bonds. Child welfare work will be discussed.

The C. N. D. calls upon all to assist in child welfare work, as next to doing everything possible for the boys at the front, there is no more patriotic duty than that of protecting the children, as it is a well known fact that many of the physical defects which caused the rejection of one-third of the men coming up for examinations in the first draft are believed to date from some slight trouble neglected in early childhood.

In order that the Rock Island county unit may know how to proceed in that work, the Elizabeth McCormack child welfare department will send a speaker, Miss Mary E. Murphy, vice chairman of the department, to address a meeting at 1 o'clock in the Rock Island library, and at 3 o'clock in Moline high school.

Save 100,000 babies and get a square deal for children is to be the slogan during child welfare year, and the second year of the war is to be marked by determined nationwide effort on behalf of childhood. Other warring countries have learned that national security requires the protection of children. They are proving their conviction by extraordinary effort and large expenditure. Therefore this country should heed the experience of Europe.

Careful study of the available sources of information about child welfare in the principal warring countries reveals striking developments of work to save the lives and health of mothers and babies, and to maintain family life and home care of children. For example, England during the second year of the war reduced her infant mortality rate to the lowest in her history, and a special report issued in 1917 by the medical officer of the local government board of Great Britain sets forth the simple methods by which this was accomplished. The new war-orphan laws of France and Italy make special provisions for children whose homes have been broken up by the casualties of war.

A working program for children's year has been prepared by the children's bureau. Through the child welfare department of the women's committee, C. N. D., this program is being placed before the child welfare committee of each local council. Upon the activities of these local committees and the response and cooperation of individual people in each community the success of the year depends. Those who wish to further the work should therefore get in touch with their local council of defense.

Every one can help. Not only mothers and fathers, teachers, physicians, infant-welfare nurses and other social workers who have to do with children, but men and women experienced in organization, and young people with leisure and good will—in fact, all who want to do their bit in children's year—will find some way to serve their communities.

It's Very Simple

DICK: "I'll say you look like a million dollars cold cash."

TOM: "Thanks! I feel like it, too—best of all, I didn't have to cash a Liberty bond to buy this outfit."

DICK: "It sure is some fine-fitting suit. Don't mind telling a friend how you do it?"

TOM: "Not at all, Dick. It's simply this: I buy all my clothes at Gately's."

DICK: "They certainly have the goods. Tell me something about the Gately System."

TOM: "Well, it's very simple. Besides selling you the best clothes that are made, you have the advantage of their charge account service. You need not pay cash—you see!"

DICK: "Yes! But what about the price?"

TOM: "If I had paid cash for these clothes I could not have saved one single cent."

DICK: "If that's true I'm going to Gately's for my new Spring suit."

TOM: "Take my tip, Dick. You'll never regret it. I used to buy clothes here, there and everywhere, but since I learned about Gately's I would never think of buying elsewhere."

DICK: "If I can get as good a suit as yours for $25 I'll be satisfied."

TOM: "You can. And if you only want to spend $15, $18 or $20—or if you want a suit for $30, $35 or $40, you can find just what you want." You need not pay all in 30 days.
